The Washington Bus is a innovative vehicle for hands on democracy, we drive votes, drive leaders, and drive change. And, Yes ... we have a bus.

(In-house design and production used)

As a native born Washingtonian, I chose to make the Yakima Valley my home after discovering this great community as a nurse in 1989. It's that sense of community of so many good people rolling up their sleeves and participating together in important work that drives me to take this next step in public service.
